BANNON

6 ULTRAFLAME

7 SMART SPREE

1 DASH OF DAZZLE

5 SPEEDY FOX

DASH OF DAZZLE came off the shelf June 23rd and ran strongly with an outside sweeping move and was second narrowly beaten behind a winner who always had better positioning; he is looking for a breakthrough win.

SPANISH RIVER went from a failed Tapeta race to a turf event last time where he couldn't keep up and Ultraflame was second; he now comes back to Tapeta.

FORTIS has had just a single race this season and his late running power was not in evidence on that occasion; his two wins last season featured big late rushes; he drops down for this second start.

UNCATCHABLE FIRE is winless in recent times; this will be his third start of the year and he is up in value after an out of the money finish on turf.

SPEEDY FOX had good pace skill May 13th but weakened late in fourth when Dash Of Dazzle was third; most recently, he had a similar type trip on turf when Ultraflame was better in second.

ULTRAFLAME is without a win this season but has been close by in consecutive events with belated moves; he departs turf and comes to Tapeta with a mild drop for John Ross; he extends to seven furlongs and was a stakes winner at this distance last year.

SMART SPREE is the question mark in this race; his seasonal bow in late April at this price was strong when he lost narrowly; a comeback race came against far too difficult a group but should serve as an ideal entrance way to this race with the big drop.

SNIPER was away from October of 2015 through June 3rd and no doubt needed that race but was only seven lengths behind key company; for this second start, Contreras is brought in and he was aboard for his last win.

8 SOMETHING AWESOME - BEST BET

2 MAJESTIC SLEW

6 COLLEEN'S SAILOR

3 OAKTON

RUCK is on the comeback trail; he made it back to the races May 22nd when out of the money on turf after attending the pace and he now moves over to Tapeta at seven furlongs which has been a winning distance for him in the past.

MAJESTIC SLEW was winter raced and came home and won three in a row from April 15th through May 28th; he developed a more patient approach in his latest; he has been freshened and indicates two recent works at five furlongs getting ready for Mike De Paulo; his freshness is appealing for this stretch out to seven furlongs.

OAKTON has been looking for a spot this weekend and opts to cut back to seven furlongs here; three starts ago, he was second to the good, Riker, with a late run at this distance; he has subsequently been out of money in two routes.

FORESTER'S DESTINY started the year in grand style with a runner up finish on turf but did not react positively to a rail rush midway last time at a route before he faltered.

MARTEN LAKE has had consecutive routes finishing out of the money both times and will now try seven furlongs; he had an encouraging work June 25th in 1.00.

COLLEEN'S SAILOR has been a frequent winner but is without a score since last summer; he was second best to begin this campaign but slumped against Majestic Slew and Something Awesome last time and has been freshened; he likes the distance.

FIELD OF COURAGE was out of the money on turf last time although not far away; his most recent sprint came in April when he dominated the pace to beat a rival who defeated him last time.

SOMETHING AWESOME closed too late against Majestic Slew May 13th when second; he then went long last time and a slow pace developed but he rallied on the edges against a key top pair; he will now shorten in distance to seven furlongs with hopes of a significant rally for Dan Vella.

BANNON

9 WINNING SMILE

2 LONDIE LOU

3 CANDY PHIL

1 RING FOR A DRINK

RING FOR A DRINK dropped down into the right spot May 14th for $20,000 and collected a maiden score; she remained at this price against non winners of two last time and rallied well on the outside to finish a tight third with Candy Phil better in second; she remains a contender and returns from a freshening.

LONDIE LOU is the big question mark in the race; when she last competed in August of 2016, she was just on the edges against Blurrricane who became a stakes winner this spring; she now goes for just $20,000 with Moreno aboard hoping to recapture the goodness of her earlier form.

CANDY PHIL started the year for $20,000 and was out of the money but showed improvement second time out to be second and just in front of Ring For A Drink; she returns from a freshening and should continue to improve.

MY RAY OF SUNSHINE has had three out of the money finishes to begin this campaign, yet, wasn't far away last time when using speed over a surface more helpful to closing types at a much higher level; she gets relief today running for just $20,000.

RANSOM ROSE is getting her first start of the year and she concluded last year with a series of retreats where she was out of the money in three consecutive events; she has tried to build momentum with a series of works on the training track for one of the hottest stables this year.

LUNA D'AVRIL had her consecutive runner up streak broken last time when running from behind and on the outside was difficult to do; she finished fifth when speed and stalking types took the top prize; she departs turf and gets back to Tapeta.

UNCLAIMEDTREASURE had early speed last time with a couple of others then retreated and finally stopped; she is down in value for this second run of the season and did win for $25,000 last November.

DONNAS SWEET HEART was certainly competitive in her opening races this season then jumped in value; most recently, she departed an acceptable performance on turf to go to Tapeta around two turns but she stopped; she drops sharply and cuts back in distance.

WINNING SMILE started the year May 22nd in a protected spot in the ultimate key race and finished eighth; the second, fourth, fifth and sixth place finishers have all come back to win and the winner has come back to be second; she now drops for $20,000 looking to capitalize and takes the blinkers off.

HOCKEY HAIR was aggressively handled to win for maiden $23,500 and when the race was on the line, she dug in determinedly to get that initial win; she comes from the outside with Lermyte taking over.

RACE #4

BANNON

6 CALGARY CAT

1 COMMUTE

2 NOHOLDINGBACK BEAR

COMMUTE trained well this spring and the benefits of those spry moves earned him a runner up finish in the Jacques Cartier Stakes and then a clear win on Tapeta; most recently on turf, he opened prematurely in the Connaught at seven furlongs then gave away the lead late while inside and settled for a narrow loss against Tower Of Texas with Calgary Cat closing three wide in third; he is seeking his initial stakes win here and cuts back to six furlongs.

NOHOLDINGBACK BEAR was perhaps at his peak last summer when he finished third in the Grade 1 King's Bishop Stakes and then captured the Grade 3 Gallant Bob at Parx with domination; after a very poor experience at the Breeders' Cup, he began this campaign in New York with a runner up finish but subsequently he had an awkward departure from the gate last time at Belmont and backed away; he has been returned to the barn of Mike De Paulo for Bear Stables; this will be just his second race on turf and he handled it well when he discovered it; he worked here Sunday sharpening his speed and technique from the gate in 47hg going out sharply.

DON CAMILLO attracted a claim May 19th and for new interests last time, he was put onto the turf and sent long and opened up a ten length lead but his velocity was squandered in the middle stages and he finished fourth; he is an interesting candidate to turn back in distance here to just six furlongs on turf; he does encounter the middle speed of Commute; he worked from the gate recently in 48.2bg for Norm McKnight.

GREEN MASK comes in as one of the main contenders here; he has run locally in the past and missed narrowly in this race last year when Passion For Action was at his peak; he is now a three time stakes winner and scored May 5th at Churchill in the Turf Sprint and was clear at the end; most recently in the Grade 3 Jaipur at Belmont at this distance, he reached for the lead late and then was defeated by late closer, Disco Panther, who is undefeated this year with a victory in the Elusive Quality Stakes to begin the season.

SWEET GRASS CREEK has been working overtime trying to keep up with the division leader in the sprint category; he chased home the difficult Pink Lloyd last time in the Achievement in second and had a high turn of speed throughout; he had a win on turf last September at seven furlongs and will try six furlongs here for Mike Keogh.

CALGARY CAT a seven time stakes winner in his career was home for the Connaught Stakes at seven furlongs on turf at the beginning of June and he ran strongly; he was about ten lengths off midway of the turn then closed three wide at the finish and missed narrowly while Tower Of Texas between rivals edged Commute; he had to settle for third; he cuts back to just six furlongs here; he has enjoyed good interim prepping for Kevin Attard.

COMMEND is a homebred for Claiborne Farm and Adele B. Dilschneider; he is by the very popular, War Front and from a good Mr Prospector dam; he has won twice on turf in his career including a run May 28th at Belmont at six furlongs where he was determined in the stretch and put away the favourite and the third place finisher has since come back to win on turf at Belmont; he competes for Hall of Fame trainer, Bill Mott and Jose Ortiz has the mount.

HOOTENANNY has also been entered in the King Edward at a mile; he was a star as a juvenile winning the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf and also producing in a couple of European races; his lone win last year came at a mile on the turf; he began this campaign with a race on the synthetic surface in Chicago where he closed a good gap to be on the edges and the runner up has come back to win; he has had subsequent prepping on turf at Keeneland for Wesley Ward; he competes for Mr. Derrick Smith, Mrs. John Magnier and Michael Tabor.

BANNON

10 CARLOS SIXES

11 GLENCAIRN

8 HOLD'EMFORRANSOM

1 U S ACADEMY

U S ACADEMY has been moved to the stable of Mark Casse; he is working with significant turf breeding and so has dedicated himself to racing on the grass to this point but will now shift to Tapeta; he has been here for two works getting ready for this first start since last November.

FLY DIRECT a homebred for Colebrook Farms, is a four year old by North Light and is bred to be a stayer but has shown plenty of speed in his extensive work program; Ryan will ride around two turns at first asking.

RARE APPEAL was in a difficult race on turf to start this year and had trained quickly going into that event and finished fifth beaten only eight lengths; he now goes two turns on Tapeta.

FULLTHROTTLE KID is one of two in the race for Vince Bellissimo along with Ringo Classic; he did have one share going long on Tapeta last season; he has worked quickly both on turf and Tapeta getting ready for this seasonal bow.

COOL CATOMINE was in a key race with several of these last time and was overwhelmed; he was ridden up the inside in traffic and stalled after that; the blinkers are on for this try and he has since trained quickly in 47.

RINGO CLASSIC is getting his first start of the year and he handled route racing on Tapeta just fine last year; he does meet some key elements here; he has trained both on turf and Tapeta.

THE OTHER BREEZE was recommended as a contender in his debut on turf June 9th; he was slow to begin then churned his way forward in the lane to be second narrowly beaten with a sizeable rally; he came back to work on Tapeta June 26th hustling along in 1.01.4 with a final quarter in 24.3; he now goes to Tapeta around two turns; he has since sharpened from the gate.

HOLD'EMFORRANSOM debuted in a key race June 10th for Ian Black and waited on the second turn until the top two had cleared away from his path then he altered outside and started his bid and finished an ok fourth with Carlos Sixes in second and Glencairn in third; he should continue to improve.

BILOXI BAY came up from Florida for a race on turf June 11th but fell back early and couldn't generate any speed; he has dedicated himself to working on Tapeta in recent races trying to generate some momentum for this shift around two turns.

CARLOS SIXES a big galloping type, was heavily backed in his seasonal bow and he raced well; he was unable to match a key debut winner through the home lane and was a bit distracted when that rival, Aurora Way, came over in front of him through the lane; a subsequent inquiry did not change the result; he looks to move forward here while the winner is off to the Queen's Plate.

GLENCAIRN came up from Florida and after time away, ran in a key race June 10th where he was moving well through the stretch in third about five lengths behind Carlos Sixes; he had a quick work June 28th in 48.4 getting ready for Roger Attfield.

JIMMY HOT ran well June 10th in his debut for Renee Kierans; he was in a key race against some seasoned rivals and was still running on through the lane showing stamina potential; he can improve here.

ROCK YOU opted to be the pacemaker in a key race June 10th when stretching around two turns and he weakened in the stretch when Carlos Sixes was better in second.

CROSS BORDER went from a sprint to a ten furlong race on turf last time where he galloped on the lead with two others then had trouble cornering into the stretch and gradually weakened; a move is made to Hernandez and he goes on Tapeta here from the widest post.

BANNON

5 TOWER OF TEXAS

1 DRAGON BAY

3 MONSTER BEA

2 HOLLYWOOD HIDEAWAY

DRAGON BAY handles both the turf and the synthetic surface quite well; he scored in the English Channel Stakes on soft turf at Belmont last October at this exact distance of a mile and he was forceful from just off the pace; his most recent start on turf came at Keeneland April 19th where he advanced to mid stretch in contention only to hang; a couple of runners just in front of him have already come back with nice races including the runner up, Some In Tieme who captured the Louisville Handicap; he came home May 20th and switched to the Tapeta for the Eclipse where he upset an unlucky, Are You Kidding Me, and also, Unbridled Juan, and he was 18-1 when he so gamely persisted; he competes here at a mile on turf for Simon Stuart.

HOLLYWOOD HIDEAWAY was in the Connaught last time at seven furlongs and he came up to rivals in mid stretch and then had to wait behind a wall but got going again and rallied nicely in fourth beaten only a couple of lengths when Tower Of Texas was the winner; he will stretch to a mile in this third start of the meeting for Barbara Minshall who recently won the My Dear Stakes with, Dream It Is; he is a homebred for Bruce Lunsford.

MONSTER BEA competed at Belmont June 9th at a route on turf in a race dominated by closing types; he did some angling at the top of the stretch and flew home in second against another rallier; he sees Woodbine for the first time for Mark Casse.

UNBRIDLED JUAN is very much looking for a breakthrough victory and a stakes score; this will be his first ever trip on turf; he likes to stalk and then close in late but has been shut out in both races this season, yet, not far away; he is a homebred for Stronach Stables going for Josie Carroll with a chance to rally through the long stretch.

TOWER OF TEXAS won this race in 2015 and took part last year but was third just a length shy of Dimension; he started this season in winning fashion in the Connaught Stakes at seven furlongs; he was hemmed in and lost his path and had to take another approach but he made it on time between rivals to win a tight three horse photo; he now stretches to a mile and showed his comfort at this distance on this course last September when he got within a half length of Champion, Tepin in the Grade 1 Woodbine Mile; he had a nice work on a giving turf course last Sunday getting ready for Roger Attfield.

SHAKHIMAT competed just beyond this distance on turf last time where he ran as a gelding for the first time; he tried to steal the event with a move in early stretch but the closers moved up and displaced him late and he was finally third as the favourite; he shortens to a mile here for Roger Attfield and prepped well on soft turf recently with Wilson aboard getting ready.

GO BRO is looking for his first stakes victory and he handles both turf and Tapeta adequately; he was a stout second last time at a route behind Melmich and will now switch over to turf at a straight mile; he has tried the grass several times with some positive results and it is just a case of getting a stalking trip that opens the way for a late run in the lane.

IKERRIN ROAD was successful second time off the claim for Vito Armata June 10th; he was moved to turf and stretched to a mile and used a patient off the pace approach to rally best of all; he gets more of class challenge here.

HOOTENANNY comes in for Wesley Ward who once again, was a hero at Royal Ascot; this one was a splendid juvenile winning the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf as well as having a significant impact in European racing then; a mile on turf proved suitable last September when he took his only win of that campaign; he was at Arlington to open up this season traveling a mile on the synthetic surface there where he finished just on the edges behind a longshot winner and that should be an ideal bridge race to get him to this event; he had finished just on the edges here in the Highlander Stakes last year and is cross entered in that race.

BANNON

4 SYNTHESIZE

7 BOURBON FIRST

2 CITO

6 LIONS BAY

MONEY TALKS switched over to turf for his second try and had a stalking trip in traffic then advanced prematurely only to lose late; most recently, he again had a trip in traffic that was unproductive; he now goes two turns on Tapeta.

CITO has a chance to move forward now in this third start of the year; in his second start of the campaign, he was just three and a half lengths shy of the runner up, Synthesize who figures to be the favourite here and he will look to close the gap.

DAILY BREW is getting into his route race and is bred to be a stayer; he won his seasonal bow but has had troubled trips in his last two events.

SYNTHESIZE was at seven furlongs in his seasonal bow and the lack of early pace positioned him on the lead and he was used to keep his spot but was finally second best; when he went from a sprint to a route last time, he was used on the pace to try and keep the advantage but he was beaten by a deep closer and settled for second; he has a good chance to control the middle pace here.

GOLDEN RIDGE was in for just $15,000 last time and it was his second consecutive deep closing effort to get in the money; the blinkers are now added and he is up in value.

LIONS BAY was dropped into the right spot June 11th for his second start of the year but he missed narrowly when gaining too late; he attracted a claim and went for $30,000 on turf last time where he was an ok third; he goes long on Tapeta here and has done well doing that in the past.

BOURBON FIRST was in this classification last time and sat off the pace nestled in traffic; he did make his run at the top of the stretch but stalled and finished fourth about three and a half lengths behind the runner up, Synthesize; he should have ideal positioning in the middle stages today.

RACE #8

BANNON

3 REPORTING STAR

4 BANGKOK

6 BULLARDS ALLEY

5 CURLINS PRIDE

ALDOUS SNOW had success in this race three years ago and was third in this event last year chasing home the difficult Danish Dynaformer; he is approaching from a different angle this season as an eight year old getting his first start of the campaign for Sam-Son Farm and Malcolm Pierce; he has had lots of legging up preps getting ready but is asked to be competitive over a mile and a half and that is a challenge.

ETHICAL FUNDS is a grand galloping type with stamina; he was a gallant second to Bangkok at ten furlongs last time and goes farther here for George Billers.

REPORTING STAR has been a good earner in his career and has had some big performances locally; in a race in March at Gulfstream in the Grade 2 Mac Diarmida, he just failed to hold the lead and he was third against Wake Forest who earlier in his career had won the Grade 1 Man o'War; he also failed to hold the lead last time at Churchill when he was displaced in second but he kept Bullards Alley in third; his good recent form at a mile and a half is encouraging; he comes in for Brendan Walsh; he has pace skill.

BANGKOK got good last autumn and was able to upset the difficult Melmich in the Valedictory Stakes moving off the rail to the outside to secure the win; he was nicely prepared by Phil Gracey to be ready for his seasonal bow at ten furlongs on turf and that opener was a productive stalking trip where he got strong late under Wilson to score; he now lengthens out to a mile and a half and has run this distance effectively in the past; his freshness is worth noting.

CURLINS PRIDE looked like he had a big chance to win at Churchill Downs last time in a first allowance event at eleven furlongs; he made a run as if he would do it but he finally couldn't get by a rival who always had better positioning and he had to settle for second; he seeks a breakthrough win having been shut out in limited campaigning since his maiden score in 2015; he comes in for trainer, Conor Murphy, who has raided successfully here many times in the past.

BULLARDS ALLEY was a stakes winner as a three year old but now as a five year old, he is winless for this campaign; he was third at Churchill two starts ago at a mile and a half in the same race where Reporting Star was second and he is here; most recently at Belmont, he finished mildly; he has been showing some hanging tendencies and the long stretch here could be challenging; he competes for trainer, Jim Glyshaw.

PUMPKIN RUMBLE came here from New Orleans to compete May 17th on Tapeta and he was second narrowly beaten in a second allowance event and he stayed well; most recently, he went to turf where most of his success has been and he finished third as the favourite behind Bangkok who had far more stamina; he meets that one again at this longer distance; he has prepped in the interim in 48b.

BANNON

4 RAINHA DA BATERIA

8 STARSHIP JUBILEE

2 INVOLUNTARY

GAMBLE'S GHOST made it back to the winner's circle here June 9th in her second start of this campaign; a return event April 23rd on dirt at Keeneland proved to be the perfect bridge race to get to her appointment here last time; she started her move midway of the turn and immediately ran into traffic but she started over again and was still good enough to win at 6-5 for her fourth lifetime win; she is entered for turf here to travel a mile and a quarter; she is a homebred for Ivan Dalos going for Josie Carroll with Contreras aboard.

INVOLUNTARY got her first local start May 27th in the Nassau Stakes at a mile on turf and was two wide of four runners in the stretch and stayed on and closed up willingly against an import runner who rushed from the outside to beat her; the top three finishers in that race were all exiting events at Gulfstream; she has been here for recent works for Stronach Stables.

GIOVANNA BLUES came here for consecutive wins last November in a tight timeframe while competing on Tapeta for Michael Dickenson; she began this year with a smart win on the turf at Laurel in late April and overcame some obstacles there to angle out and move away from that field and her progress has continued; her good form and her freshness are inviting; she must run farther than ever before in this spot; Husbands who had a win with her here in November, has the mount.

RAINHA DA BATERIA seemed to like the long stretch here last September when she captured the Grade 2 Canadian with a deep close; in the Grade 1 E. P. Taylor at ten furlongs, she was beaten only a length when Suffused was second; she started this year May 13th on a yielding terrain in an event that should be a good bridge race to get her to this second start of the season; the winner of that race did come back to win the Grade 2 New York Stakes; she must be game at this longer distance; Castellano takes over for Chad Brown.

SUFFUSED made her way here from Saratoga in good form last October to contest the Grade 1 E. P. Taylor which she lost by a scant nose with a belated close; she exited that local race and went to Florida to win a couple of Grade 3 stakes on turf; she comes out of a flat fifth place finish in the Grade 2 New York Stakes at Belmont where she was just on the edges; she comes right back at the same distance on this more wide open course for Hall of Fame trainer, Bill Mott and Juddmonte Farms; Jose Ortiz rides.

UCHENNA has had just two starts this season and most recently was in the Trillium Stakes where she closed quite well from the outside but still had work to do in fourth beaten about two lengths; she visits turf regularly and has won twice on the lawn but not lately; she stretches to ten furlongs for Mark Casse and competes for Gary Barber.

BELLE DE NUIT competed locally last season and took a win on turf at a mile and a sixteenth in July; a victory at nine furlongs in September was a front running affair; she is getting her seasonal bow here for Mark Casse and is asked to travel a mile and a quarter; she has been here for an extended period getting ready.

STARSHIP JUBILEE attracted a claim at Gulfstream earlier this year for a minor sum and has now won four in a row on turf including the Grade 2 Nassau when introduced here May 27th on a yielding terrain; she stumbled hard leaving the gate but was reserved back in a relaxed mode and then she quickened outside through the stretch to get the longshot victory; she must extend by a quarter mile and this will be her longest race to date.

BANNON

3 HOLY HELENA

5 INFLEXIBILITY

1 CHANNEL MAKER

11 AURORA WAY

CHANNEL MAKER is a late running son of English Channel owned originally by Joey Gee Thoroughbreds and joining the partnership has been Wachtel Stable and also Gary Barber; he was developed originally by Dan Vella and more recently has been under the care of Hall of Fame trainer, Bill Mott; he has been unlucky at times in his career but he left nothing to chance in the Marine Stakes; he came widest for the stretch drive and was simply second best behind a preferred winner, Souper Tapit, who had moved earlier; he has gone back to Saratoga to prepare and comes in as one of the favourites; Hernandez seeks his second Queen's Plate victory.

GUY CABALLERO a homebred for Sean & Dorothy Fitzhenry, competes for Catherine Day-Phillips who twice has sent out the runner up in this race; he is by the multiple Grade 1 winner, Quality Road, and from a dam who was a multiple route winner; his most significant race came in the Plate Trial Stakes in his second start this year when he went from a sprint to a route; he stayed back early and then swept by his opponents with a three wide move at the wire to catch, King And His Court, and State Of Honor in a race where the late pace weakened in a slower clocking than that of the Woodbine Oaks; Jose Ortiz has been brought in from New York for this occasion; his final work came last weekend where he rallied from behind in company in 59.4.

HOLY HELENA is a homebred for Stronach Stables by their popular, Ghostzapper, a winner of the Breeders' Cup Classic, and sire of Queen's Plate winner, Shaman Ghost; this one is from a dam who was a route winner; she trained locally last season then was developed this spring in New York by James Jerkens who currently conditions, multiple Grade 1 winner, Shaman Ghost; in her second start, she won a route at Belmont; most recently here in the Woodbine Oaks, she had her longest race and most significant test; with Contreras riding for the first time, she managed to escape traffic and alter outside coming to mid stretch and then she was strongest late; she worked here Monday under Contreras with a good closing kick in 1.01.4 Stronach Stables is a three time winner of this race; recent Oaks winners to go on to capture the Queen's Plate include, Lexie Lou, Inglorious, and Dancethruthedawn; Contreras seeks a second Plate win.

SPIRIT OF CALEDON showed progress in a race here May 14th in his second start of the year when he won a maiden race at a route; most recently in a first allowance event, he also ran well when third needing a little better journey; he found himself mired down on the inside late in the race; he is a son of Mike Fox, winner of the 2007 Queen's Plate and he competes for Joe Chad's Copper Water Thoroughbred Company Ltd., Centennial Farms (Niagara) and also owner/trainer Pat Parente; Jerome Lermyte will be aboard for the first time.

INFLEXIBILITY an auction purchase, competes for Klaravich Stables and William Lawrence and goes for Eclipse award winner, Chad Brown who earlier this year won the Preakness Stakes with longshot, Cloud Computing; she began her career with some optimism at Gulfstream on turf with a late rush; at Belmont in her second start, she had a successful late rally when heavily backed and was full of athleticism on that occasion; she came here for the Woodbine Oaks in her third lifetime start; she broke off balance and then attended a pace that was too quick; she took a while extricating herself from the rail and then got free in the stretch and advanced from sixth to be a distant third with Holy Helena an easy winner; she has been returned to Saratoga to prepare; she is a homebred by Anderson Farms by the late, Scat Daddy, the recent star of the Royal Ascot meeting; top rated, Javier Castellano, takes over.

KING AND HIS COURT was originally an inexpensive purchase by Alexander Patykwewich; he subsequently moved to the control of Gary Barber and Wachtel Stable and for Mark Casse, won the Coronation Futurity with a devastating inside run at the expense of his current stable mate, State Of Honor; a subsequent win in the Display Stakes earned him champion two year old honours; after floundering form in Florida over the winter, he regained his winning touch when he returned here to take the Wando with an inside rush at the expense of, Tiz A Slam, and Megagray; he tried that same inside rush in the Plate Trial but missed narrowly when Guy Caballero rallied to win it from the outside; he is a son of Court Vision looking to move forward at the longer distance; he had a good work with Boulanger aboard June 23rd in 1.00.3 going out strongly in 1.13.1; he looks to become the first Queen's Plate winner since 1976 to have also won the Coronation Futurity; Boulanger earlier won the Queen's Plate with Dancethruthedawn; Casse seeks a second plate win.

STATE OF HONOR a homebred for Manfred Conrad and Penny Conrad, competes for Mark Casse; he is by Grade 1 winner, To Honor And Serve and he developed late last year with a runner up finish in the Coronation Futurity caught only late by his new stable mate, King And His Court; he had significant campaigning in Florida this winter running second in the Grade 2 Tampa Bay Derby behind eventual Belmont Stakes winner, Tapwrit; he was second in the Grade 1 Florida Derby behind eventual Kentucky Derby winner, Always Dreaming; in the big event itself, he was the early pace maker under difficult terms and faded; he was here for the Plate Trial where he set an ambitious middle pace and he had the lead until late but was finally third beaten less than a length; last year's third place finisher in the Trial, Sir Dudley Digges, went on to win the Queen's Plate; he had a good work with Husbands aboard June 23rd providing a rally in 59.3 out in 1.13.1 getting ready; Husbands seeks his third win in the Queen's Plate while Casse seeks a second score.

MALIBU SECRET a homebred for Sam-Son Farm, is by Malibu Moon and from a well related dam from the same family as Irish Mission and Mythical Mission; he showed potential on the turf as a two year old when chasing Channel Maker; his seasonal bow April 28th was a win with authority for Malcolm Pierce; in the Marine Stakes, he angled out for the stretch run but Channel Maker was moving more quickly and he was overwhelmed at that stage and finished a distant third; he trained very well June 18th in a five furlong work in company with an older mate and he galloped out strongly; he had a more bountiful trial on Sunday when he rallied substantially with Garcia aboard in 59.2 out in 1.12.1; Sam-Son Farm seeks a sixth Queen's Plate success; Garcia will ride for Malcolm Pierce.

MEGAGRAY a homebred for Gustav Schickedanz by his outstanding, Langfuhr, was a winner at a route last September; he was third to begin this year in the Wando and then fourth last time when using a galloping style in the Marine less than a length behind Malibu Secret but about six and a half lengths behind the runner up, Channel Maker; he has been prepping well on the training track with plenty of stamina in his works; he competes for Gustav Schickedanz and goes for Mike Keogh and both seek a third success together in the Queen's Plate.

VAUGHAN competes for RCC Racing Stable and goes for John Mattine; he is a runner with some physical substance and is from a good family top and bottom being a son of City Zip and from a dam who produced three multiple stakes winners; in his opener, he stayed behind in the gate and lost all chance; in his second start which came on turf, he broke well and circled three wide on the turn with every chance to do well but he hung from the outside in third against the favourite; he goes in a two turn race for the initial time with this switch to Tapeta at ten furlongs; Slade Callaghan rides.

AURORA WAY is a homebred for Chiefswood Stable by Giant's Causeway from Aurora Lights who was a stakes winner going long; he overcame his gate phobia and started splendidly in his June 10th debut at a route; he stalked smartly and then drew off for Stuart Simon; he worked early last Sunday morning in a highly satisfying 59.3 out in 1.12.3; he is one with potential; Chiefswood Stables seeks a second Queen's Plate win after a victory in 2004 with Niigon; Julien Leparoux seeks back to back Queen's Plate scores after a win last year with Sir Dudley Digges.

TIZ A SLAM a homebred for Chiefswood Stable, is by two time Breeders' Cup Classic winner, Tiznow, and from a dam who did well routing; he showed immediate potential last season and did win the Cup & Saucer Stakes in October; he has had two races since coming home from a brief Florida campaign; in the Wando Stakes, he was second when out rallied by King And His Court; most recently in the Plate Trial, he acted up at the gate; he hustled into a striking position leaving the second turn but lacked room at the quarter pole and was delayed; he gained late in the stretch to salvage fourth beaten less than two lengths; Attfield did win the 1995 Queen's Plate with, Regal Discovery who had finished fourth in the Plate Trial; he worked smartly June 21st with a half mile in 47.2 out in 1.01; he also had a smart breeze on Wednesday with Da Silva; Chiefswood Stable seeks a second Queen's Plate win and Roger Attfield seeks a record setting ninth win in this event while Eurico Rosa Da Silva seeks his third win in this classic.

JIM BANNON'S JOURNAL JULY 2ND, 2017

WATCH ME STRUT an inexpensive auction purchase by seven time stakes winner, Strut The Stage, is from a dam who won going long and all of her four foals have been route winners; he won consecutive events last November with a sharp off the pace technique; he sharpened that late running style in his second start of this year when going from a sprint to a route and despite being inconvenienced at the start, he found a good level stride at the end to close thirteen lengths relative to the pace and draw clear at the end; he seeks an initial Queen's Plate win for Kingfield Racing Stable and George Ledson and goes for Catherine Day-Phillips who has twice sent out the runner up in this race; he practiced his rallying style in a work June 17th in 1.00. getting ready; he then prepped June 24th in 1.01; David Moran rides.

12 FORESTELLA

5 HAILEY'S PRIZE

8 HEADS 'N TAILS

11 JUPITER'S EAGLE

FOREST LASS was on the edges on turf in her second start of this year which was an improved performance but she still had work to do; she will cutback to six furlongs and come from the rail on Tapeta with Alderson.

BLUE PEARLS was off her feet at the end of her start on turf June 16th; she had also lost in double digits the time before.

DELASTE DANCE debuted May 28th for just $25,000 and was last early but made a move inside and stayed nicely throughout to get third prize while the top two fought over the major portion; she has since worked in 1.01.1 and is now up in value.

COBRA SOPHIE had a June 3rd seasonal bow for Sid Attard and did just enough to project that she could improve in this second start of the meet; she landed fourth with Forestella in second; she has had an interim work in 1.00.4.

HAILEY'S PRIZE was moved over to turf last time and checked with about a half mile to go; she was seeking room between rivals deep in the stretch in tight quarters and jostled her way through but lost narrowly to a preferred deep closer on the outside; she figures to maintain her good form with this transfer to Tapeta.

FLASHY KNICKERS is a debut runner for Mike Mattine by Maclean's Music going for Ted Burnett; she has had a variety of preps and will try six furlongs at first asking and wins the services of Hernandez; she has been entered with lasix.

A PIC BY MRWILL has had many chances and has often finished on the edges; she was pinched out between runners at the top of the stretch last time and a subsequent inquiry did not change the results; she gets back to Tapeta with a chance to stay on as one of the contenders.

HEADS 'N TAILS a debut runner for Beverly Lewis-Owens and Steve Owens, is a full sister to the stakes winner, Zazinga, and from the same dam who produced the stakes winner, Seffeara; she worked quickly on turf June 16th and came to Tapeta June 25th for a gate work in 48.3bg going out well; Bridgmohan rides.

GAELIC REBELLION was getting her second start of the year and cut back in distance and managed to flush the favourite three and a half furlongs from home but then faltered herself while a first time lasix user.

VICTORIAN LASS has had many chances and has often run well but did not thrive from the inside post last time when about five lengths behind with Jupiter's Eagle second; she now goes for John Cardella and the blinkers are off and Boulanger rides.

JUPITER'S EAGLE was thought to be ready to move forward in form second time out June 11th; she improved to finish second narrowly losing the lead late; Miller has had some success riding Husbands this year and he will take over.

FORESTELLA renewed her career June 3rd when changing her running style for the first time in her life; she found herself tenth in the early going and seemed to like that off the pace technique; she rallied all the way up to second spot against the heavy favourite; she starts from the outside.

BANNON

8 YORKTON

2 MADE YOU LOOK

1 MINISTER'S STRIKE

4 CITY BOY

MINISTER'S STRIKE was in the very difficult Marine last time and was positioned inside early and when he got off the rail, he started to run but he was finally fifth against his winning stable mate; he did win on turf last October at Keeneland and being by English Channel, it is logical that he now moves to the lawn here.

MADE YOU LOOK comes in for Todd Pletcher; he was a stakes winner on the grass at Gulfstream earlier this year then disappointed as the heavy favourite when he had an excusable journey; his last two races have resulted in wide losses including a run on the turf at Churchill last time where he was bothered in the early going; perhaps he will like this wide open course with the rail down.

CONQUEST LEMONRAID won his seasonal bow and was smartly prepared for that strong pace win at the direct expense of the eventual Plate Trial winner, Guy Caballero; second time out, he went to the very difficult Marine Stakes where he got in a pace fight with the last place finisher and both runners paid the price through the lane and he wilted to sixth; his late running stable mate came on to win it; he now goes to turf for the first time and trained smartly on the grass June 11th in 58.3 for Mark Casse.

CITY BOY had front end speed to win on turf two starts ago; most recently in a more difficult situation, he was behind at the start then made a run from the second flight and was finally second beaten a length by an older rival who made all of the pace; he is back with his own age group here and stretching out to a mile.

ESCONDERA competed in a first allowance event around two turns on Tapeta last time and made a move to the lead in the stretch but the winner had him measured with a deep closing approach and he had to settle for second; he was on turf at Keeneland back in April without producing as a longshot then; he did work well on turf June 25th getting ready.

FLOWMOTION was on turf at Gulfstream in February with a good approach in fourth behind a key winner who came back to defeat Escondera at Keeneland; his made his way home June 17th to compete here at seven furlongs where he took on older runners and had aim at the top spot but finally finished third beaten two lengths; he shifts back to grass now.

WOODBRIDGE was in a first allowance race on turf last time against older rivals and lacked room from behind a wall of runners; he stayed on to be fifth beaten just three lengths; he is in against his own age group here looking to move forward,

YORKTON was the dominant speed force in the Queenston Stakes May 13th at seven furlongs on Tapeta to win convincingly; the runner up had a good result recently on turf; he has tried the lawn a couple of times without producing but is certainly in better form now; he comes in for Chiefswood Stable and Stuart Simon.

GAMBLE'S CITIZEN was in a first allowance event going long on Tapeta last time and brushed the gate and that proved costly; he came from far back to make a bid in the stretch but he couldn't continue and slumped to fourth with Escondera in second and that one is here; he has been training forwardly on the turf and now moves to the lawn a footing he will likely enjoy.

13 JUST RENO

5 SIGNATURE DATA

10 CHARMING VISION

3 ROBUSTIOUS

6 FORESTER'S FORUM

RED CHILL had no impact in a seasonal bow June 17th in a race that came off the turf; he draws the difficult rail post with Contreras.

DISCREET DAN had his closest finish two outings ago at seven furlongs when closing belatedly; he went long in his most recent start and got pinched early then tried to start a run but was against key company and couldn't make an impact; he tries easier here going shorter.

ROBUSTIOUS runs the same type of race each time with energetic pace skill but not quite enough stretch reserve; he was unable to hold the lead late at seven furlongs last time after being in a draining pace duel; he cuts back to six furlongs which should help.

EXECUTIVE SIGHT tried to rate back last time and use an off the pace technique; he steadied himself on the turn and then came out for room but did not have a thorough enough response and landed a distant third.

SIGNATURE DATA is a first time starter and a homebred for Norseman Racing Stable by Signature Red who has done well with his young runners; he has had a variety of good works including a move June 16th in 59.1 where he stayed on well; he worked in 59.2 back in late May; he goes with lasix in this opener and Mosqueira rides for John Mattine.

FORESTER'S FORUM an auction purchase, will debut here for Joey Gee Thoroughbreds; he is by Old Forester; his dam has produced nine winners he has potential and Hernandez will ride; it is imperative that he has a sharp departure from the gate.

NUPOGODI was running late at a route June 21st and also closed belatedly at a sprint the time before; he will shorten all the way up to six furlongs hoping for a dynamic late run with blinkers on.

PIERRE MINCE has been an aggressive part of the pace in all races and each time, has given away lengths through the stretch; he had a wide post last time against some of these when ninth.

JAIL TIME was somewhat unlucky at the top of the stretch last time when he lost his path but he got going again to be fourth beaten just a length with Just Reno in second.

CHARMING VISION was given a good chance to wake up in his second start June 11th because more room was added and from a wide post, he fought all the way on the pace and missed narrowly and was one position behind the runner up, Just Reno; he looks like he is made to be a stout runner, yet, he will cut back in distance today.

MASTER CONNOR a debut runner for Howard Keen, is a second debut runner here by Old Forester; he is from a dam who has produced five winners; he worked quickly from the gate June 18th in 48.3bg getting ready.

OLE OLE OLE debuted May 20th but five furlongs was much too short for his late running style and he closed belatedly; he scratched June 11th and goes here instead with a furlong added for Robert Tiller.

JUST RENO had his seasonal bow June 11th and like many of the Sadler runners this season, he was highly competitive; he missed narrowly with a four wide move and the winner held on with the lead; he looks to advance in this second start of the season at a half furlong shorter.

SUN VISION a debut runner, is a homebred for Elizabeth and Gordon Lickrish by Court Vision going for Kevin Attard; he had a good enough work when showing speed June 18th in 1.01.1.

GOLDEN EXCHANGE has been out of the money in both races to date and faced a key winner last time and now gets in against an easier group; with the class drop, he has a chance to be effective from the outside.
